ASL Manual Alphabet — A to Z

SignLanguageAlphabet.org · Free to print and share · US Letter, ink-saver monochrome

A

Fingers folded firmly into the palm; the thumb rests upright against the side of the index

B

Four extended fingers held tightly parallel together, thumb tucked flat across the centre of

C

Fingers curved over and thumb arched underneath, forming an open crescent that resembles a

D

Index finger straight up; middle, ring and pinky curve down to meet the thumb, forming an open loop.

E

All four fingertips curl inward and rest gently on the edge of the horizontally tucked thumb.

F

Index finger and thumb touch to form an O circle; middle, ring and pinky extend upright and

G

Index finger and thumb point horizontally and parallel like small calipers; the remaining

H

Index and middle fingers extended together horizontally, pointing sideways; thumb tucked beneath

I

Closed fist with only the little finger extended straight up; the thumb rests across the folded

J

Form the I pinky handshape, then carve a smooth cursive J downward and inward from the wrist.

K

Index straight up, middle finger angled slightly forward, thumb pressed upward between their

L

Index finger straight up and thumb fully extended horizontally at a crisp 90-degree right angle.

M

Thumb tucked under the index, middle and ring fingers; only the pinky remains outside the

N

Thumb tucked securely under the index and middle fingers; ring and pinky rest outside.

O

All four fingertips curve down smoothly to touch the tip of the curved thumb, forming a complete

P

Same finger configuration as K, but the wrist tilts down so the middle finger aims at the floor.

Q

Similar to G, but the hand drops at the wrist so thumb and index point toward the floor.

R

Middle finger crossed tightly over the index finger, like fingers crossed for good luck.

S

Tight closed fist with the thumb folded horizontally across the front of all four fingers.

T

Thumb tucks between the index and middle fingers; only the index finger rests on top of the thumb.

U

Index and middle fingers extended straight up together, touching edge to edge; thumb rests across

V

Index and middle fingers held straight up and spread apart in a clear V or peace-sign formation.

W

Index, middle and ring fingers extended straight and evenly spread; the thumb holds the pinky

X

Fist with the index finger raised and bent at the knuckle into a distinct question-mark hook.

Y

Thumb and pinky extended fully outward in opposite directions; middle three fingers folded down.

Z

Extend the index finger like a pencil and trace a sharp zig-zag Z across the air in front of you.

J and Z are motion letters — trace the hook / zig-zag from the wrist. Palm faces the observer unless noted.